	G.H.Q.M.E.F. Late P.A.M.C.	4880	COLONEL SPROULE JAMES CHAMBERS O.B.E. D. Director of Hygiene.	He has been responsible for the supervision of the sanitation and hygiene first of the British Troops in Egypt, and later of the Middle East Forces with all that those terms imply in an Eastern Country in wartime. He has carried out this difficult task conscientiously with great zeal and energy combined with tact. His ^{excellent} liaison with our allies has been of great advantage in helping to admit the help of both military and civil authorities. He has been responsible for the correlating of the many diverse types of rations necessary in the Middle East from the medical and dietetic standpoint. The low rate of infectious and contagious diseases is due in a great measure to his ^{skilful} supervision. P.
